

CIRCLE CONNECTS

POWERED BY

Circle Connects brings you the resources of the University Circle neighborhood as online and interactive programs!

Circle Food Tour

An interactive cooking show that airs every other Sunday at 6:00 p.m. on Facebook Live and YouTube. Buy a food kit from participating restaurants, or shop on your own!

August 9 – Chef Brandon Chrostowski, Edwins Restaurant and Butcher Shop

August 23 – Chef Tiwana Williams, PearlFlower Catering

September 6 – Pastry Chef Kevin Shlappal, The Coffee House in University Circle

September 20 – Chef Doug Katz, Provenance

Wade Oval Art Installations

UCI and the Center for Arts-Inspired Learning will work with neighbors and professional artists Augusto Bordelois and Angelica Pozo to create large-scale art installations on Wade Oval in an exhibit called Voices on View. The art will address timely themes such as racial injustice, the digital divide, and women's suffrage. Installations will take place on four Fridays: August 7, August 21, September 4, and September 18.

Shape Up in the Circle

Free, live-streamed workouts for people of all ages and fitness levels. Nineteen new workouts will be streamed July 15-September 16 on Wednesdays at 6:00 p.m. and Saturdays at 10:00 a.m.

Partner-Led Programs

Additional innovative programming is courtesy of partner organizations throughout University Circle.

All programs include additional educational resources so kids can learn as they have fun.

Circle the Circle

Walk, bike, and explore University Circle with outdoor activities.

For more information, visit universitycircle.org/circle-connects

POWERED BY

